At Jersey City, Dr. C. F. Stokes, of the navy, will join the party, to accompany the President to Washington. Send-Off Planned.

The villagers are preparing to give Neighbor Roosevelt a great send-off at the railroad station when he leaves. All the school children will turn out with flags, and as the President's train leaves the depot will sing a farewell song, the depot will sing a farewell song, which was composed especially for the occasion by a local genius.

In accordance with his usual custom, the President will take a boat at Long Island City, which will convey him around the lower end of Manhattan to Jersey City, where his special will be awaiting him.

Plans Are Perfected For Roosevelt Return

The exact time of President Roose velt's arrival in the city tomorrow afternoon has not yet been ascertained, but everything is in readiness for his reception. Major Sylvester has detailed 250 policemen to keep order along the Avenue during the ride of th the Avenue during the ride of the Chief Executive, and ropes will be stretched from Sixth street to the White House.

Commissioner West said today that as far as possible traffic along Pennsylvania avenue would be stopped for a quarter of an hour or more.

MRS. COOPER REFUSED TO OBEY INSTRUCTIONS

Director Hughes Says That, Is One Reason for Her Removal From M Street School.

The colored patrons of the M Street High School are making a strong ef-fort to prevent what they term the persecution of Mrs. A. J. Cooper, principal of that school.

Congressman for Her.

George H. White, Representative Congress from North Carolina, a friend of Mrs. Cooper, testified, it is said, to the qualifications of Mrs. Cooper as a teacher in North Carolina schools, and said that the people of that State had great respect for her. The question has clearly resolved itself into a controversy between Director Hughes and Mrs. Cooper. Director Hughes contends that the principal has repeatedly advanced students to higher rect this, has given Mrs. Cooper instructions which she chose not to carry out.

The principal, backed up by the patrons of the school, avers that the system in vogue in the M Street school, during the term of her administration, has enhanced the educational facilities at the school. That this is a fact, it is claimed, is borne out by the number of free scholorships won by the colored pupils in various institutions throughout
